JOIN A TEAM THAT CELEBRATES CHILDREN, CONNECTION, AND EMPOWERING PARENT-CHILD INTERACTIONS

Location: Shoreline (Seattle area), Washington

Organization: Pediatric Physical and Occupational Therapy Services – Offices of Rosemary White, OTR

Are you a passionate Pediatric Occupational Therapist looking for a workplace where your curiosity, creativity, and clinical expertise can truly shine? At Pediatric Physical and Occupational Therapy Services, we are thrilled to welcome full-time Pediatric Occupational Therapists to our warm, collaborative, and highly specialized team.

Here, you will have the opportunity to build meaningful connections with children and their families through individualized therapy grounded in DIR®/Floortime—a relationship-based model that supports each child's developmental capacities, honors their unique individual differences, and nurtures warm interactions that inspire growth. We deeply value the parent-child relationship as a foundation for development and welcome therapists who share this commitment to join our team.

This role is ideal for clinicians eager to deepen their skills in DIR®/Floortime, sensory processing, emotional development, and praxis—and who want to learn in a nurturing, mentorship-rich environment.

Why You'll Love Working With Us

- Highly competitive wages
- Comprehensive benefits package
- 401(k)
- A collaborative, inspiring team environment
- Exceptional opportunities for professional development
- DIR®/Floortime training and one-on-one mentorship with Rosemary White, OTR
- The chance to make a real impact by empowering parent and child interactions every day

Starting salary range: $45–$65 per hour (negotiable based on experience).
